The Johannes Cabal Series is a number of novels and short stories by Jonathan L. Howard about the eponymous necromancer of some little infamy. It takes place in an Alternate History where magic is real and acknowledged as such by the general population, though also rare - the kind of thing the average person hears about but doesn't see.

The Fear Institute (Johannes Cabal, #3) by Jonathan L. Howard

Johannes Cabal is such a gem of character! This is a story of his youth, time before to be a necromancer. To read this story is a great spectacle, and not only symbolically as it has a lot of theater, cycles of true magic blended with the magic of the scenarios, and a crime hidden in plain sight.

at least, in Johannes Cabal. A man that walks a fine line. He could be easily unlike-able but isn't. There's fun in reading his thoughts on whether or not to just shove his employers over a cliff and have the stupid adventure over and done with. Herr Cabal is a man not afraid to kill if it means having his way or not having to listen to someone's annoying ...

Johannes Cabal: The Fear ...](#)

Johannes Cabal, a brilliant scientist and notorious snob, is single-mindedly obsessed in heart and soul with raising the dead. Well, perhaps not soul.... He hastily sold his years ago in order to learn the laws of necromancy. But now, tormented by a dark secret, he travels to the fiery pits of Hell to retrieve it.
