Killer Within is a well written and well developed story. Allison is a terrific character; strong, smart but with some flaws. She's not perfect. Her background is doled out in bits and pieces, not giving anything away too soon. Her connection to Arnie is teased about but not revealed until the end, and that made it just that much more interesting.

Allison McNeil Thrillers Audiobooks | Audible.com

Jeff Gunhus is one of my favorite authors so I was thrilled to read and review Killer Pursuit. I already had Killer Within, the first book in the Allison McNeil series, on my TBR list so, of course, I had to read it first (review will be posted tomorrow). I've also read his Jack Templar books which are great middle school/young adult books.
