The House of Susan Lulham: A Merrily Watkins Novella ...

The House of Susan Lulham (2014) is a crime / ghost story novella by British author Phil Rickman, what he describes as the "12 and a half" entry in his Merrily Watkins series, about a female vicar and diocesan exorcist for the cathedral city of Hereford. The Watkins stories combine supernatural and mystery elements, leading them to be classified variously as horror and crime fiction (though Rickman personally rejects the label of horror writer).

The House of Susan Lulham - Wikipedia

In 2014 Oxfam published a book of short crime stories, Oxcrimes, which included "The House of Susan Lulham" by Phil Rickman. This featured Merrily Watkins, his much loved Vicar/ diocesan deliverance consultant who has featured in a series of longer novels. But much was left unsaid in that story, and now Rickman has returned to it at greater length.

The House Of Susan Lulham: Amazon.co.uk: Phil Rickman ...

The House of Susan Lulham is part of Phil Rickman's popular Merrily Watkins series, but is not a full-length instalment - it's a novella (around 100ish pages), currently available as a rather beautiful little hardback edition as well as an appropriate-priced Kindle Single and a three-hour audiobook download.

The House of Susan Lulham by Phil Rickman - Goodreads

This a modern tale, a modern ghost in a celebrity (Susan Lulham's) house and related in part by the cynical and secular society we now live in. As the Diocesan Deliverance Consultant (that's exorcist to you and me) Merrily is called to a house where a terrible suicide occurred.

The House of Susan Lulham Audiobook | Phil Rickman ...

THE HOUSE OF SUSAN LULHAM is unlike the other Merrily's in several ways. It's a novella—longer than a short story, but less than a third the length of a novel (and priced accordingly, in case you were wondering)

Merrily novella | PHIL RICKMAN

This book, The House of Susan Lulham, grew from a short story Rickman published in an anthology. He was encouraged to develop it into a novella and thus Merrily Watkins light was born. Of the regular recurring characters of the series, there are only four here—Merrily, of course, plus the diocesan secretary Sophie, Merrily's mentor Huw Owen, and the police inspector Frannie Bliss.
